THE UMBRELLA AND THE CROW

Question 1:

Rearrange the following sentences in the right order to make it into a story on the left page.

- A wind blows.
- It is raining.
- The crow flies away with the umbrella.
- The girl has an umbrella.
- The umbrella is now a nest.
- The umbrella hangs from a tree.

Answer:

Here is the correct order:

1. It is raining.
2. The girl has an umbrella.
3. A wind blows.
4. The crow flies away with the umbrella.
5. The umbrella hangs from a tree.
6. The umbrella is now a nest.

---

Question 2:

Now say the story in English using the words rain, wind, crow, nest, is, has, blows, flies.

Answer:

One day, a girl was holding the umbrella over her head as it was raining heavily all day. She was walking by a tree when a strong wind blows and her grip over her umbrella loosens. Just then a crow catches her umbrella with its beak and snatches the umbrella from the little girl.

The crow flies far away with the umbrella and keeps it upside down on a tree. The crow builds a nest in the umbrella and lays eggs in that nest. Soon, the eggs hatched and chicks start living in the nest.

(Note: The student can write a story on their own)
